President's Report

We have some exciting things coming for the future of Michigan Chess. For the past several years, we have been improving tournament registrations by accepting advance payments through paypal. Beginning on July 1, all players will have the option of registering for Michigan tournaments using www.onlineregistration.cc, the online registration system designed by former Michigan chess player and coach, Sisira Amarasinghe. This secure site will allow players to make accounts, register for Michigan tournaments, renew their MCA and USCF memberships, register multiple individuals for an event, and perform single transactions using a credit card or paypal. Individuals will also be able to purchase and renew their MCA memberships using this site. Having more participants who have paid in advance will improve the starting time for our tournaments.

The 2013 Michigan Open will be the first event that will run using the online registration system. I am extremely excited about the 2013 Michigan Open. Event director, Jeff Aldrich has found a perfect new venue for the event, the Livonia Marriott. In addition to being conveniently located just off of I-275, the hotel restaurant, Sweet Lorraine's is fantastic.

The Michigan Open will once again be FIDE rated. In an effort to make MCA tournaments relevant for players who are trying to improve their ratings at all levels, we will have FIDE rated the top sections of the 2013 Michigan Class, and 2013 Michigan Bottom Half Class and 2013 Michigan Open. As of July 1st, FIDE rated events will be played under the FIDE laws of chess. In an effort to comply with this regulation, MCA will observe FIDE laws of chess in FIDE rated sections. The major differences between USCF and FIDE are listed here: http://www.uschess.org/content/view/11750/668/. We will make certain that these are posted at the event as well. We encourage feedback from MCA members on this issue as well.

I want to give a big thank-you to all of the MCA members who purchased their USCF memberships through MCA in the last year. Because of you, MCA is being recognized with a USCF membership appreciation award for the 4th consecutive year. With this honor, look for a feature on MCA in a future issue of Chess Life magazine.

In April, Michigan sent over 300 players to Supernationals V, the 4th largest contingent of players in the country! In July/August, the 2013 US Open is coming to our neighboring state of Wisconsin. If you have some vacation time, you may want to consider making the trip.

I look forward to seeing you at future MCA events and other tournaments around the state!

2013 Elementary/Primary Team Championships

By Jennifer Skidmore

2013 was the last elementary team tournament that will be held at the MSU Union building. Over the last 10 years, we have enjoyed some exciting events and learned to grow with the changing needs of our event, and of the building. However, for the future, MSU will be repurposing our playing halls into different academic centers, thus making no space for chess.

As this was our last opportunity to enjoy the site, we crowned 5 new state champions (no ties!), missed some old friends, and welcomed some new programs. Without further ado, please read about the event! This year, the K-6 section was won by Redford Washington Parks Academy. WPA out-rated the field by 150 points. WPA was held to a draw in round 2 by Ann Arbor Clague. This proved to be the only blemish on the WPA record. Ann Arbor Clague, the 2012 champions, drew with WPA in round 2 and continued to keep the pace with wins in rounds 3 and 4. However, Clague faltered in the final round, drawing with Utica Schuchard, thus becoming the only team with 4. Okemos Kinawa, Detroit Spain, and Utica Schuchard each scored 3.5 match points and finished in 3rd, 4th, and 5th places respectively.

Troy Barnard won the K-5 team championship. Under the leadership of Ben Li, Troy rallied for 4 rounds, scoring victories all the way until being held to a draw by Ann Arbor Emerson in the final round. The 4.5 out of 5 score was sufficient for Barnard to win clear first, but a log jam of teams followed with 4. Tied for 2nd through 6th were The Roeper school, Ann Arbor Thurston, Detroit Bates, Ann Arbor Emerson, and Ann Arbor Lawton. Roeper and Thurston recorded their losses against Barnard in rounds 4 and 3, respectively while Bates was defeated by Emerson. Emerson had two draws against Barnard; tying the match with Barnard B in round 4, and with the champions in round 5. Ann Arbor Lawton lost to Roeper in round 1 before mounting a comeback performance for the remainder of the event. Troy Barnard B and Canton Dodson scored 3.5 out of 5 to finish in 7th and 8th, respectively.

For 2013, the K-3 championship was fiercely competitive with only 18 teams. The top 3 teams proved to be elite and were the only ones to score more than 3.5 points. The Roeper school, led by Aiden Song, scored 4.5/5 to become the 2013 champions. The only blemish on their record was a draw with Ann Arbor Go Like the Wind in round 4. Second and third place finishers, Ann Arbor King Kasparov and Ann Arbor King Karpov each lost 1 match to the champions and won the rest to finish at 4-1. Two teams finished with 3 points to round out the top 5. Ann Arbor Go Like the Wind was 4th, and Grosse Pointe Academy was 5th.

Kevin Fite has now brought chess to another school in Detroit. Chrysler elementary, in their first appearance, won the K-5 Reserve with a perfect score, and won the K-3 Reserve, also with a perfect score. Just to assert their skill, teams from Chrysler also finished 3rd in these two sections. In K-5 Reserve, the runners-up were the 2012 champion, Detroit FLICS. In K-3 Reserve, the runners-up were Ann Arbor King Kramnik. Scoring 3.5 and finishing 4th, 5th, and 6th in the K-5 Reserve were the new faces from Ann Arbor Carpenter, and some familiar names to this article, The Roeper school and Detroit FLICS. In the K-3 Reserve, Roberts Rooks G scored 3.5 and finished 4th while Washington Parks Academy was the lone school with 3 points, finishing in 5th.

Although the MSU era for this event has ended, clearly the enthusiasm and skill of the players has not. We look forward to seeing you on Saturday February 1st at the Lansing Center in Lansing for another Michigan state championship event.

2013 Junior High Team Championships

By Jeff Aldrich

The 2013 Junior High Team Championship was held at the Michigan State Union on February 23 in conjunction with the H.S. Team Championship.

This year was the Spain show as the school from Detroit took clear first in the Championship section and a share of the Reserve championship. They received a little help in the Championship section as they were tied with Ann Arbor Greenhills A going into the last round, but a game Plymouth East squad reached second place by taking out Greenhills, leaving Spain along at the top.

The Spain reserve team was joined at four points by Sterling Heights Schuchard and Detroit Cornerstone Green. All three teams will be Co-Champions in the Junior High Team Reserve Section for 2013.

MICHIGAN AT SUPERNATIONALS V

By Jennifer Skidmore

One of the chess books that I like the most is Chess: 5334 Problems, Combinations, and Games by László Polgár. I find it fascinating that there were more players at the record breaking Supernationals V (SNV) (5335 players) than there are problems in this monstrous collection! In addition to setting the record for the most players ever at a tournament in North America, there were a great number of firsts for players from Michigan!

Before I mention some of those, let me first compliment the dedication of the parents, players and coaches from Michigan. New York brought more than 900 players; Texas brought over 400 players. Both of these states have larger populations than Michigan, so this is perhaps to be expected. Illinois also has a larger population and had the 3rd highest number of participants at the event. About a week before, we were tied with IL, and then as travel plans changed, more players from IL added and a few from MI dropped, so ultimately the 310+ players from MI were the 4th largest group of participants from any state. I was extremely proud of our group!

I was very excited to be a section chief at the event, but very sad that I didn't have time to wander around and see more of our players. I didn't visit the Delta ballroom after Thursday; I didn't make it to the Presidential after Friday, and the few times that I made it into Tennessee, the JH tournament chief kept telling me to go rest so that I would be ready for the next round (he didn't realize that even though it looked like I was working, I was secretly taking advantage of my vest to snap a few pictures ☺). However, there were some familiar faces for MI players in the Delta ballroom as Jeff Aldrich volunteered on-site and Sisira Amarasinghe was one of the floor TDs for K-5 U900.

It seems that Supernationals is destined to fall in the midst of the NCAA basketball tournament. I remember wishing that I had time to watch the games during SNIV but also not being particularly invested in any of the games. This year, MICHIGAN played their final four match-up during round 5 of SNV. I joked with many members of the TD staff about finding creative ways for the round to finish quickly, and finding none, I amused myself by saying "GO BLUE" to the players from MI as I collected their result slips. Some were more receptive than others, and nothing made me happier than receiving a "GO BLUE" wish myself as I picked up a result slip during round 6.

In order to participate in the bliz and the bughouse on Thursday, many Michigan players arrived before the main event. The bughouse came off incredibly well and featured the undefeated (12/12) performance of Alan Sun and Jalen Wang of Michigan in the K-9 section.

Bughouse Partners, Alan Sun and Jalen Wang

The blitz suffered lots of delays from slowed results reporting and pairing posting, so only 5 rounds were played, ultimately masking some of the results. Ben Li finished 2nd in the K-6 with 9.5/10 and Michael Bowersock finished 4th in K-12, also with 9.5/10, and neither of them had the opportunity to face the perfect scores in their respective sections. Although it was exciting to see more than 900 competitors play blitz chess and using the new USCF blitz rating system, the sections should probably have been separated into different rooms.

Edward Song (R) at SuperNationals V

In the past, several MI players have finished 1st in various Under sections, as individuals, and as teams. However, the top places in the championship sections proved elusive until 2013. In 2013, Atulya Shetty won the national high school championship! Atulya finished in clear first, finishing ahead of several other 2400 players. In addition to this impressive accomplishment, two other MI players finished at the top of their respective sections as well! Safal Bora was 2nd in K-9, and Edward Song finished 3rd in K-8.

One of the things that I find the most exciting in MI is the dedication of the players and coaches to team chess. Michigan HS team champions, Ann Arbor Huron made the Nationals trip for the first time and finished 2nd in the K-12! This is the highest that any team from Michigan has ever finished in an Open section. Previous bests include 6th by Plymouth East in K-8 (2011) and 10th by Kearsley in K-12 (1991). Several teams were also extremely prolific, winning team trophies in multiple sections! These groups included Detroit Bates with 4, Cornerstone Nevada with 3, Clio with 3, Detroit Chrysler with 3, and Roeper with 3.

I have compiled a list of the Michigan individual and team trophy winners. I apologize if anyone is missing; I had a difficult time identifying MI winners in the elementary and bughouse events in particular.

I look forward to seeing all of our competitors at the Club tournament in November, the team tournaments in February, and the individual championships in March!

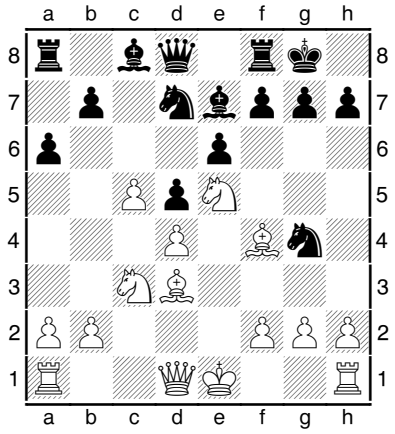
6...Bc6 or even Bd7 was perferrable. There is no place for the QN to go from d7.
7.Nf3 Be7 8.Bb5?
A tempo-waster...better was the immediate 8.Bd3.
8...a6 9.Bd3 Ng4?
Black returns the favor...since the text yields no tactical or positional advantage.
10.Bf4 0–0 11.Ne5?



Again, the text moves simplifies Black's task of liquidation of his backward pieces; forcing liquidation of developed pieces decreases White's spacial advantage and loses the c pawn as well.
11...Ngxe5 12.Bxe5 Nxe5 13.dxe5 d4??
A pawn is a pawn is a pawn!! If Black takes the c5 pawn, he has a passer and excellent winning prospects.
14.Na4 Qd5??
A serious blunder!! 15.Nb6 should secure a heafty advantage!
15.Qc2??

15...Qxe5+ 16.Be2 Rd8 17.0–0 a5 18.Bb5 Bd7 19.Bxd7 Rab8
Black surrenders the piece, trying to avoid the fork at b6....but even with the fork at b6, if he takes the B on d7, returns his KR to d8, he down the exhange, but key white pieces are removed from play.
